

GUERRILLA CHIEF IS STILL LIVING

Bill Quantrell, Ruthless Raider of the Kansas Border, Thought Dead Since Civil War, Yet on Earth.

AN OLD ACQUAINTANCE TALKS WITH HIM

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 9.—Bill Quantrell, leader of Quantrell's guerillas in the civil war who, according to history, died of wounds at a Kentucky hospital, after his raiders were cut up, is alive and lives at Quatsino, on the northwest coast of Vancouver island, under the name of John Sharp, according to a number of people who have conversed with him. J. B. Duffy, a prominent timberman, who recently became interested in timber land at Quatsino, recognized John Sharp, who is over seventy, wiry and gray; as Quantrell, Duffy having been a member of the Michigan troop of cavalry which cut up Quantrell's force. He stated to Duffy that he was correct in his recognition.

Did Not Die, as Thought.

Sharp said he had been left as dead and instead of dying of his wounds at Louisville as history recorded, had taken a horse, ridden many miles and disappeared. He made his way to South America, living a number of years in Chile, whence he went to Texas, where he engaged in the cattle business, making considerable money which he exhausted. Then he went to Oregon, where he punched cows and drove cattle over the mountains. Then he came to British Columbia nearly two decades ago and engaged in logging at different camps of the northeast coast of Vancouver island, until ten years ago when he became a trapper of the northern coast.

Six or seven years ago he went to Quatsino, where he was made car carrier at the West Vancouver mines. When J. B. Duffy landed at Quatsino from the steamer Pees he met John Sharp on the beach at Coal Harbor. Duffy looked the old man over and said:

"Is that you, Quantrell, you old rascal?"

Admitted He Was Quantrell.

"Come into the house," said Sharp, and for some hours the two men talked. Sharp stating he was in reality Quantrell and he talked at length of the raids in Kansas and elsewhere. He was most interested in Duffy's story of the cutting up of Quantrell's band and when Duffy told of how forty men had been killed, tears are said to have rolled down the old man's cheeks.

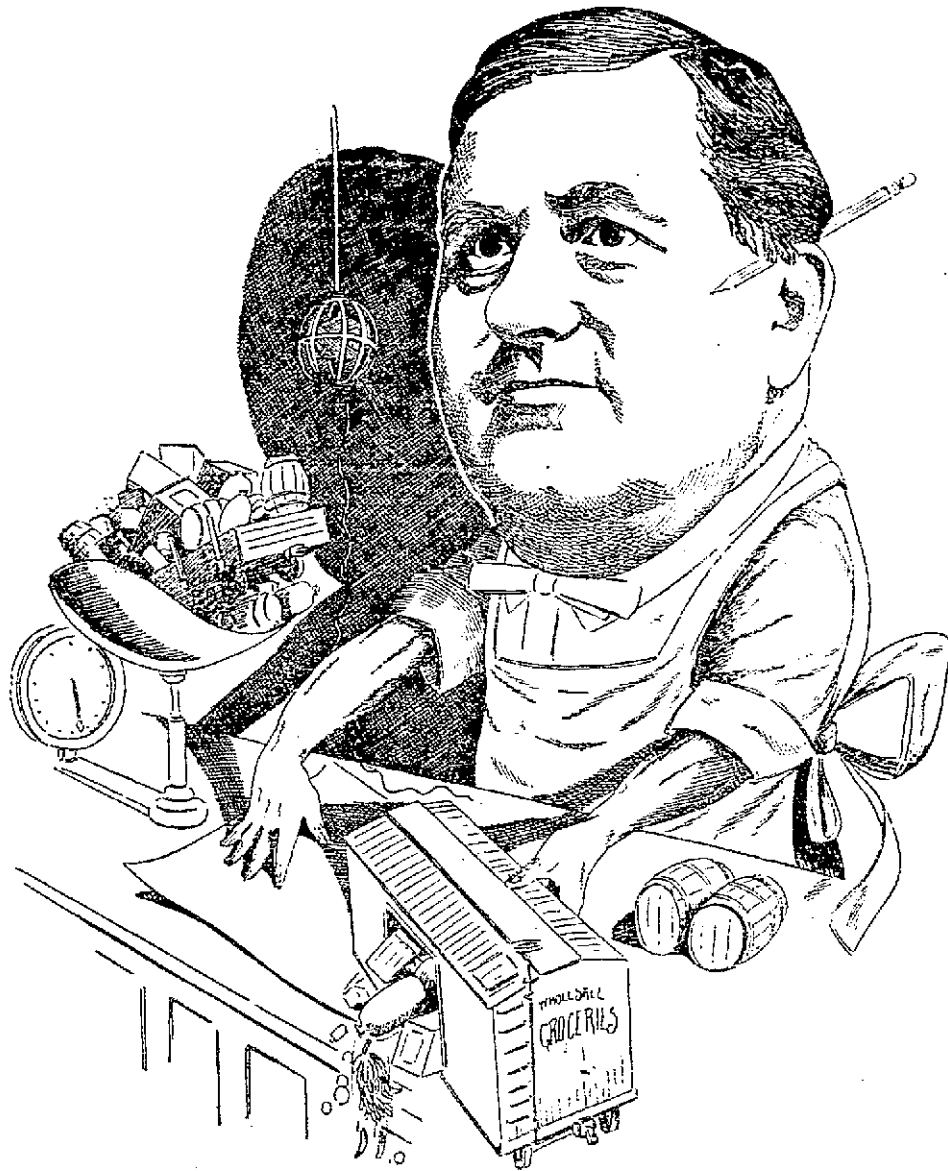

The story the old man told was that when his band had been cut up, he had been bayoneted in the chest and had a bullet wound through the shoulder. The surgeon diagnosed that he could live no more than a couple of hours and he had been left so that others with more chance of recovery could be attended to. While they tended the others he got up and disappeared, despite his wounds.

VERSION OF HIS DEATH.

Kansas City, Aug. 9.—According to local history, Bill Quantrell, the guerilla leader who played so important a part in the Missouri-Kansas border warfare of the early days, died in the Sisters hospital at Louisville, Ky. Rev. Thomas Cobb, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of this city, but now located in Oklahoma, knew Quantrell in Kentucky during the civil war. He was a cavalry recruiting officer and at the time camped with Quantrell for two days and had many talks with him.

"I was paroled in Louisville," said Rev. Cobb, "by Colonel Folsom. One day Folsom asked me if I knew Quantrell and I told him I did. He asked me if I would identify him and I said I would if he were dead. I would not if he were alive. I was taken to view a body, but it was not that of Quantrell. But a day or two later several of Quantrell's men saw the dead body of their leader in the Sisters hospital and attended his funeral in the Catholic cemetery."

BUTCHERY OF THE JEWS WAS HORRIBLE

Paris, Aug. 9.—A message received here today from Admiral Philibert, off Casablanca, Morocco, probably forwarded from his flagship by wireless telegraphy and dated at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, says:

"General Druide's camp outside Casablanca was attacked today by 5,000 to 6,000 horsemen, who were vigorously beaten off."

BUTCHERY OF JEWS.

Tangier, Aug. 9.—Horrible details of the slaughter of Jews, the maltreatment of women and the pillage and burning of shops at Casablanca are told by passengers who arrived here last night by steamer from that port. They say that after the bombardment of the place began, both the Moorish soldiers and the Arabs revenged themselves on the inhabitants, plundering, killing and burning on all sides. They sacked the custom house and burned a large part of the city, whose streets are so filled with decomposing bodies that an epidemic is threatened. Among the Jews killed was a man under the protection of the British consulate. His sisters were assaulted and carried off by Moors.

Many feats of heroism both by French and Spanish sailors are recounted.

STRIKE OF WIRE MEN SPREADING OVER COUNTRY

Little Doing in Chicago Where Western Union Men Struck.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—The business of the Western Union in this city was today paralyzed by the strike of the operators that took place last night. Business in the general office was moving very slowly, although the officers of the company claimed that they had sufficient men to move their work. They had a large number of men in their operating room, but for all that notices were posted in the receiving offices saying that all messages would be taken subject to delay.

A meeting of the grievance and executive committees will be held later in the day and demand will be made on the Western Union for an eight-hour day, an increase of 25 per cent in wages and recognition of the union. If these are not granted by the company the strike is to continue. The local officers of the company declined to commit themselves regarding these demands until they have been presented, but it is generally believed, even by the striking operators, that the demands will not be granted, and they expect to remain on strike. The disposition to remain out was strengthened during the day by reports from Helena, Mont., where the men had struck, and from various other cities, where, it was said, the men were willing to go out if asked to work with non-union men in the Chicago office.

Caused Great Inconvenience. The strike naturally caused great inconvenience, but the operators of the brokers and commission houses were not called out, and they were able to do business as usual. It was understood, however, that no commercial business should be carried over the brokers' wires.

The operators of the Postal company were exceedingly restless during the day and even in the early morning about fifty of them did not report at the usual time. No demands have been made on that company, but the officers declared that they considered the situation critical.

A large number of the messenger boys employed by the Western Union went out in sympathy with the operators and throughout the morning they were parading the streets. No disorder was attended the strike so far, although the Western Union building is surrounded by a large crowd of curious people and sympathizers with the strike.

Mass Meeting Held. A mass meeting of the striking telegraphers of the Western Union was held early in the day, but no decisive action of any kind resulted. After the general meeting the strike leaders went into executive session, and it was announced that a meeting of the grievance committee would be held at 1 o'clock to consider among other things the advisability of calling out the operators of the Postal Telegraph company. There are about 300 operators in the service of the Postal in Chicago and fifty of these failed to show up this morning.

The officials of the Postal company say that they know nothing of an impending strike, but admit that one is possible.

At the headquarters of the striking operators it was said today the Western Union had at noon only twenty-nine men at work out of a total of 800. This statement is denied by the officials of the company and they certainly seemed to have many times that number at work in their operating room.

Late this afternoon it is expected the union will present to the Western Union the following demands:

An eight hour day, an increase of 25 per cent in wages and recognition of the union.

If these demands are not granted in

THERE WAS A MIGHTY SLUMP AT TERRE HAUTE

Recount Cut Down School Enumeration There Almost 5,000.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 9.—County Superintendent Hubbard has received a letter from the state superintendent of public instruction announcing that the revised school enumeration of Terre Haute shows 13,045 children.

The enumeration of Terre Haute as originally taken and reported to State Superintendent Cotton this spring showed that there were 17,339 persons of school age within the city. This was a gain of about 3,900 over the total of a year ago, and placed Terre Haute ahead of Fort Wayne in the rank of Indiana school cities.

Upon the protest of Superintendent J. N. Study, of Fort Wayne, who declared that the returns upon their face indicated fraudulent "padding" upon the part of somebody connected with the work in Terre Haute, State Superintendent Cotton ordered a recount and sent one of his deputies to this city to supervise the work.

The result announced today shows a reduction of 4,894 from the original claim made by Terre Haute.

So far as can be learned here, the state superintendent's office has not indicated whether or not it intends taking any legal action for fraudulent enumeration, judging by political sentiment plainly evident in some quarters here, however, there is believed to be some likelihood that action of this kind may be precipitated from Terre Haute without waiting for the action of the state superintendent.

FORT WAYNE KEEPS PLACE.

Big Terre Haute Slump Vindicates Action of Supt. Study.

Returns from the recount at Terre Haute occasioned no surprise among Fort Wayne school officials who have from the first contended that the earlier claims made by that city were wholly unwarranted. The Fort Wayne enumeration is 16,634, and with the "padding" eliminated from the Terre Haute figures Fort Wayne is assured of retaining its place upon the state board of education.

The result at Terre Haute is a complete vindication for Superintendent Cotton led to the recount and the uncovering of the frauds in that city. Recent disclosures made by the South Bend Tribune indicate that the count in that city also was "padded" to the extent of something more than 3,000.

WILL TRY NEW PLAN FOR THE SHORT LINE CARS

Jefferson and Taylor Street Cars Soon to Run to Transfer Corner.

With the idea of obviating the necessity for a transfer and in the hope of bettering the service, the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company will shortly make a trial of the system of running the Jefferson and Taylor street short line cars to the transfer corner.

The change has been in contemplation for some time, and it will be put into effect as soon as a time card is evolved from the office of the transportation department. This will mean that the Jefferson street car, instead of running merely between Broadway and Garden street, as at present, will run from Garden street to the transfer corner and return. At the same time the Taylor street car between Broadway and the Lake Erie railroad tracks will also make the round trip to the transfer corner.

It is expected that the change will improve the service, for while the cars on the short line will be rather less frequent than at present, it will do away with the necessity for transfer and will save two additional cars over a considerable section of Broadway. The plan is to have the Jefferson car on a fifteen minute service and the Taylor street car at intervals of half an hour.

Making It into Car Barn. All the machinery has been torn out of the old power station at Chestnut and Clinton streets, and the street railway company is now installing a system of tracks in the big building to utilize it as car storage and repair barns. The curves leading to the present car barns are so sharp that it is impossible to take the big interurban cars into shelter. Two tracks in the old power station building are equipped with pits in order that repairs can be made to the cars handily.

GIVEN A PEEP INTO TREASURE HOUSE OF ART

J. P. Morgan's London Collection is Valued at $10,000,000.

London, Aug. 9.—The Daily Mail today publishes an interview with one of the foreign delegates who are attending the international school congress, who, with a dozen other delegates, was permitted to view the art treasures contained in the Princes Gate mansion of J. Pierpont Morgan. In describing the wonders he saw, the delegate said:

"We traversed a series of beautiful rooms in which articles of fabulous worth were strewn about broadcast."

"I saw in the course of a brief half-hour visit in this one house marvels of art from every corner of the world which must have represented a total value of close upon $10,000,000. At any miniature lying in an open case with the jewels of its frame sparkling in the sunlight would realize not less than $200,000."

"Pictures by the most famous painters of all time cover the walls, each being illuminated by an ingenious artistic arrangement of concealed electric lights."

"The owner of this vast wealth of art treasures was absent, but I learned that he had been obliged to knock two houses into one to accommodate his ever-increasing collection."

"I heard incidentally that Mr. Morgan has thirty artists engaged in the production of hand-painted volumes dealing with the miniatures of his marvelous collection. Each of these books will cost five hundred pounds sterling and it is stated that they will be presented to the crowned heads of Europe."

SEPARATE ENTRANCE FOR INTERURBANS SUGGESTED

Engineers and City Officials Talk Over Elevation Plans.

At a meeting today between Mayor W. J. Hosey, Frank P. Randall, city civil engineer, E. J. Lennon, Henry Schwartz and Jesse Brosius, of the board of public works, and W. S. Dames, Fred M. Graham and Harry L. Weber, chief engineers of the Wabash and Pennsylvania railroads and the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company, respectively, the subject of clearance at Calhoun street and Broadway for track elevation was discussed at length.

For the interurban cars the Springfield and Fort Wayne traction line, which enters over Calhoun street, a clearance of sixteen feet is asked, while the local street cars will not need to exceed thirteen and a half or fourteen feet, and as a suggestion to obviate this trouble it was proposed that a separate tunnel be constructed at some point for the interurbans.

Another suggestion that entered into the discussion was a proposal to detour the cars and have them use the Gay street overhead bridge, but Mr. Weber did not give this any serious consideration, as he said it would not be practicable in so far as it affects the cars from the west, as it will consume half an hour more getting to the central station and entail the construction of several miles of track.

Then the question of an old survey made by the country route from a point west of the city and to be used by the Bluffton line as well, was brought up, but after it had been fully explained Mr. Weber told the officials that this would entail a greater expense than would be created by the traction company in the payment of its share of the tunnel construction and that was abandoned as a possible solution of the clearance question.

Mr. Lennon then suggested that it would be a good idea to have the railroads and the city take up a view of accommodating the city cars at a point west of the city and to be used by the Bluffton line as well, was brought up, but after it had been fully explained Mr. Weber told the officials that this would entail a greater expense than would be created by the traction company in the payment of its share of the tunnel construction and that was abandoned as a possible solution of the clearance question.

PROBING THE DEATH OF WEALTHY MAN IN CHICAGO

Rich Fish Merchant Found Near Tracks With Bullet in Heart.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—The police today are investigating the death of Hugo Pezolt, a wealthy fish merchant, whose dead body was found lying on the embankment of the Chicago and Northwestern tracks with a bullet wound through the heart. An hour previous to the finding of the body fire had been discovered in the basement of Pezolt's home. The police are working on the theory that Pezolt was shot by burglars, who, after attempting to rob the place, had set fire to the house. It is thought that he pursued the robbers, who shot him and then left a revolver at his side to indicate that he had committed suicide. There is no known reason why Pezolt should have fired his residence and then kill himself.

The attorneys for the oil company were directed to inform the court of the financial responsibility of the company.

LAKE SHORE FLYER THROWN FROM TRACK

Dashes in Wreck of Freight Cars—Coaches Derailed No One Hurt.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—The Twentieth Century train westbound, on the Lake Shore railway, met with an accident today near Chesterton, Ind. A heavy freight train eastbound parted when not far from Chesterton, and the rear part of the train "buckled," throwing several cars on the freight track. Before the men on the freight were aware of the accident the Twentieth Century train came along and struck the freight cars which had been thrown in the way. It reduced these cars to kindling wood and two of the leading cars in the passenger train were thrown from the track. They did not go into the ditch, but remained standing beside the rails. The passengers were slightly shaken up, but none of them were injured. Engineer Downey and Conductor Schultz, of the Twentieth Century, were slightly, but not seriously injured by flying fragments of the freight cars.

The Twentieth Century was delayed about three hours in reaching this city.

AN OFFICIAL VERSION.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 9.—At the headquarters of the Lake Shore road here, it was said this morning that no one had been injured in the accident at Chesterton. The Twentieth Century limited ran into a freight train which had been wrecked. According to the statement of officials of the company only the engine and two coaches of the limited were derailed. The coaches remained in an upright position. A relief train was at once sent to the scene of the accident and it is said the limited will proceed to Chicago as soon as the freight wreck that now blocks the tracks can be cleared away.

GETS FINE, BUT NO LENIENCY.

Brazil, Ind., Aug. 9.—The case of Neal Carr, charged with selling beer to Jap Head unlawfully last Sunday, was tried last night by Special Judge C. S. Payne. Attorney Payne is the legal adviser of the Good Citizens' League of Clay county. Carr, through his attorney, C. G. Schofield, entered a plea of not guilty, but after listening to the evidence of Officer Frank Gasaway, who testified that he saw the actual transaction last Sunday, Schofield stated to the court that the defense would make no further efforts for acquittal and asked the court for leniency.

Leniency amounted to a $50 fine and thirty days in jail. Carr is one of the four saloon keepers of the city who will not sign the Sunday closing agreement. Since he had not withdrawn his plea of "not guilty" he will be allowed to appeal the case to the circuit court.

MUGGY M'GRAM SUSPENDED.
Brief Talk Which Glants' Leader Had With Umpire Klem Responsible.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 9.—Manager McGraw of the Glants has received a telegram from President Pulliam of the National League, informing him that his presence will not be desired on the diamond until tomorrow. The summary suspension is the result of a brief talk McGraw had with Umpire Klem on the Chicago diamond. McGraw said:

"I'm sorry that the suspension comes at this time, when we have important games to play. That man Klem certainly made some rapid decisions against us, and I couldn't help telling him of them. Of course, I might have used language that was not as full of errors as Klem's decisions, but I couldn't stand his decisions."

Spent Night in Fort Wayne.

NORMAN SELBY, "KID MCCOY."

STOPS IN FORT WAYNE.

Kid McCoy Spends Night in City on His Way Home.

Norman Selby, who fought his way into fame as "Kid McCoy," was a guest at the Wayne hotel last night and today resumed his journey to New York in company with E. J. Wilson. The two came from Rushville, which was Selby's old home, where they attended a home coming of the old settlers meeting. Their next stopping point is Mt. Clemens, where Mrs. McCoy will join them.

Last night Selby took a party of acquaintances to the Corner Rod and Gun club park where he met Jimmy Gardiner who is in training there with "Kut" Goodman, his sparring partner. The trip is being made in a 45-horse power Peckless motor car.

Selby is looking well and while heavier than when in first-grade fighting trim is in no sense beefy. He said last night that he doubted if he would ever enter the ring again and declared that he certainly had no present intention of doing such a thing. After a visit to Mt. Clemens Selby will enter and take part in several automobile races for which his big machine is entered.

At the Gun club park last night he had a very pleasant visit with Gardiner and Goodman. He thinks Jimmy one of the very best men of his class in the country and predicts a flattering future for him if the fight game is brought back to anything like its former standing in the country.

BRITT AND GANS MATCHED.

They Will Meet at San Francisco on September 9 for $25,000.

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—Representatives of Jimmy Britt and Joe Gans last night signed articles for the appearance of the two lightweights before Gleason's Occidental club in this city on September 9. Manager Gleason signed on behalf of the club. He agrees to give 75 per cent of the receipts with a guarantee of $25,000.

GOOD WORDS AND CHECKS.

Contributions to The George Siler Testimonial Fund Are Coming.

Sporting men all over the country are sending in to the treasurer of the Siler testimonial fund checks and good words and although the farewell is six weeks away great interest is being taken and the work is being carried on harmoniously. Among the contributors who have sent in checks are Jim Coffroth of San Francisco; George Siler of Chicago; John Lario, of Oshkosh, and W. A. Pinkerton of Chicago.

Each of the donors takes occasion to say that Siler has always been honest and square in his dealing with the prize ring and all give their most cordial endorsement to the movement, with the hope added that it will be a big success.

NEW FLOWER POTS.

Before using new flower pots soak them in a tub of water. Unless this is done they will, by reason of their porosity, rob the plants placed in them of considerable moisture, often sufficient to cause serious injury before the cause of the trouble is discovered.—Home Chat.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 9.—Ray Ridgall, Walter Berner and Charles Wright, all of Indianapolis, expect to leave the city Monday morning on motorcycles for one of the longest trips on record. S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

The deep, underlying cause of every old sore is a bad condition of the blood. This vital fluid has become infected with some germ or poison which prevents the place from healing. This infection may be the result of an inactive, sluggish condition of the system leaving the refuse matter in the body to be absorbed into the circulation instead of throwing it off through the usual channels of nature. Another cause is the weakening or polluting of this life-stream from hereditary taints, or from the effects of a long spell of sickness, leaving disease germs in the system. When the blood is in this condition a sore cannot heal because the impurities with which the circulation is filled are being constantly discharged into the place to irritate and inflame the tissues and further disease the surrounding flesh. The only treatment that can do any good is one that removes the cause, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. It begins at the fountain head of the trouble and drives out all germs, impurities and poisons, and then the place, being supplied with rich, pure blood, heals naturally and permanently. Local applications assist in cleansing the place, but a cure can only be effected through a purification of the blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free. BIG CIRCUS ANNOUNCED.

Forepaugh and Sells Bros.' Show Coming to Fort Wayne.

The best circus of all—Adam Forepaugh and Sells Bros.—is coming to Fort Wayne on Labor day, Sept. 2. With a show which has been widely improved and so filled with European novelties as to be an absolutely new thing in the way of a tented amusement.

There is not an old act to be seen in any of the three rings or on the two stages, and of the 300 performers the major portion are making their first tour of this country. The parade has been so vastly changed in character that it is in no wise like the antiquated pageantry of the average show, but instead, is a long splendid line of novelties and originality. The same newness that characterizes the parade is found in every detail of the organization. Especially is the spectacle of "Fighting the Flames," a new creation in entertainment. It cost one million dollars to build, and the expenditure shows itself in a mimic city filling the arena of the tent with its domes and skyscrapers; in the streets thronging with pedestrians and vehicles, and in the great battery of metropolitan fire-fighting apparatus in the struggle with the flames.

But the one great sensation of the age and the climax of all circus thrillers is the automobile somerset of Mlle. La Rague. The act is not to be compared with others of similar character. It is the utter limit of human daring and recklessness. Those who have seen the act say it tries the nerve of spectators to the very snapping point.

The main tent of the Forepaugh and Sells Bros.' circus is the largest canvas pavilion ever erected. It covers two acres of ground and will seat 14,000 people. In it are three rings, two stages and a vast hippodrome course.

COUNTY FUNDS $13,000 SHORT.

Discovery Made in Warsaw, Ind., and Investigation is Begun.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 9.—The authorities of Kosciusko county were startled when it was learned that there is a mysterious shortage of $13,000 in the treasurer's office, and an investigation is now in progress. Treasurer Irvine reported Tuesday that only $2,625.51 remained in the county treasury. The auditor at once said that the treasurer's statement was incorrect and that the county had thousands of dollars in the treasury. As a result an investigation was commenced and the facts of the shortage were disclosed. Irvine's friends are confident that errors in bookkeeping will be found.

The preservation of wood with sulphur, applied in liquid form, is gaining special favor in Germany. The material completely fills the cell spaces of the fiber, and at moderate temperature it is little affected by water, acids and alkalis solutions, though it oxidizes readily at high temperatures. Popular is best adapted for this treatment, results with oak and pine being less satisfactory.

Attorney General Bonaparte thinks it would help some if a few bad trust magnates were clapped into jail, Wall?

Standard oil stocks may slump on the curb, but the profits continue to drip into the pockets of the stockholders, of whom John Doe is about one-third.

Hope to goodness the prosecuting attorney did not take that shiny new kid along with him for safe-keeping. Kid has no need of an outing anyhow; at least not before it's had a full inning.

Commander Peary has announced abandonment for this year of his projected polar trip. Perhaps thinks Wellman will save him the trouble of finding it. Will next probably hear that the aerial dash has too been called off on some account or other. Peary says he has waited too long and Wellman can have the remaining excuse for not having waited long enough.

Seems much a pity that some other means than force of arms cannot be employed to suppress the anti-foreign uprising of the fanatical Moors of Casablanca and other points in Morocco. Looks rather cruel and murderous to pepper away at them with long-range naval artillery against which they can neither direct attack nor make a stand. At the same time accounts of the atrocities the fanatical devils have committed are apt to congeal the founts of pity and make one wonder why the French stop shooting at all. It is probable that had there been no foreign interference no Europeans would today be left in Casablanca to tell the story of the butchery.

The senatorial contest in Mississippi has been settled by declaration of John Sharpe Williams' election in the primaries, a decision fully acquiesced in by Governor Vardaman and his friends. The margin of victory for the brilliant democratic leader of the lower house was so narrow as to hardly constitute a distinct choice, but the acceptance by the other side of even a small plurality of the votes as indicating the will of the democratic electors put out of the way what might otherwise have become an embittered political contest. Mr. Williams will grace the senate as he has the house and Mississippi has honored herself by sending her foremost man to the higher body.

Would just like to see the right move made against the lumber trust and it isn't a department of justice job, either. If a few scores of republican standpattons in congress could for a time be transported far beyond the northern sea there would be some chance of relief via the low tariff or free trade route. No hope of it, as it seems. And while musing along this line, just think of a few more trusts that could be very efficaciously busted by rational tariff reform. Not free trade, mind you; but an adjustment of duties to natural conditions. But what's the use? Aldrich won't let congress do it and it will not be done until—no knowing when. Even Roosevelt wants no tariff disturbance until after the next presidential campaign and when that is over the view will be that standpatism has had an endorsement—provided, of course. The country has gone democratswards in its time.

Standard Oil company of Indiana—why isn't there more general objection to that title?—has taken initial steps to appeal from the judgment of Judge Landis on that thirty-million-dollar fine. Standard octopus has the money in its old teapot and doubtless would be glad to pay the penalty and have the matter forgotten quickly as possible if that would end the business, but several thousand more counts in indictments with potentialities of some $50,000,000 in fines still stand against the company and that beneficent corporation neither wants the fashion set of being kicked by every court that comes along nor the precedent of maximum fines established. Then there is the possibility of getting a higher court to take the view that to be soaked the limit and swatted as trust before never was swatted is a cruel and unusual punishment. And so far as that goes it will be partly correct. It is unusual all right, all right—a confounded sight too unusual, a sage observation that we submit buttons up about all there is to the trust question. Some more of the limit in mulct and not too long held off fruitage of Attorney General Bonaparte's regret that he can't slap a few trust mongers in jail will do a heap to restore public confidence in the courts and revive the old faith that there is balm in Gilead, that even here in this vale of tears there is sweet nepenthe for us all to quaff. Might go on quite a lot longer, but without much prospect of hastening things any. However, Landis is the man for us, and Bonaparte talks as though in a pinch he might prove to be another.

GUN KEEPS POLICE FROM FLAG.

Marine Corporal at Logansport, Ind., Refuses to Strike Banner.

Logansport, Ind., Aug. 9.—When Chief of Police Graham ordered a recruiting officer of the United States marine corps to haul down a United States flag he had no idea of the complications aroused. The city ordinance prohibits banners of any description to be displayed over streets. Graham demanded that Corporal Murtough strike the flag and is alleged to have threatened to haul it in himself. Murtough, six shooter in hand, told the police official to leave the banner alone or he would get killed. Then the civil war veterans endeavored to gather a sufficient force to mob Graham. Meanwhile an army recruiting officer across the street immediately unfurled another flag. Both officers were put in charge of armed men instructed to shoot any one offering to molest the flags. A report was sent to Washington and an order sent to Murtough to keep the flag flying.

HOW IS THIS?

The cheapest suit made by Hart, Schaffner & Marx costs the merchant $13.00 at wholesale. Patterson Fletcher Co. will sell Hart, Schaffner & Marx suits as low as $7.50 in the great sale that began today.

Edward M. Wilson returned last evening from Findlay, Ohio, where he adjusted an insurance loss.

CARRIED REVOLVERS TO GUARD SMALL STOCK OF MONEY

Eastern Lads Arm Themselves Before Starting West—City Court.

Louis Casselburg and Walter Scott started west from Philadelphia with an exaggerated idea of the brand of doings in the middle west and evidently thought they were of the same make as the Colorado and Montana kind so they armed themselves with revolvers to guard their stock of money which totalled about $200. Casselburg had both revolvers yesterday when they were picked up by Pennsylvania officers who make a habit of charging men with train climbing in the local courts, no matter where the offenses are committed. Judge Skelton fined the man with the guns but let him go under a suspension but ordered his weapons destroyed by the sheriff. William Lind, who climbed on a train some place in Ohio, was picked up during the day and all got an hour to leave town.

The Other Cases.

Thomas Brown, or rather a railroad employe traveling under that name, got busy yesterday when Patrolman Kientz told him to go home and assured the officer that he "would get his buttons." This cost him a fine of $1 and costs.

James McCormick, a one-legged beggar who spends most of his time in jail, went back for fifteen days after forty-eight hours of freedom.

Rose Field, who served five months for drunkenness, was up for loitering. She promised to go to an uncle at Angola and was given the opportunity.

LOUISVILLE BREAKS POLICE SOT.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 9.—Patrolman Oliver Mollie met practically the same penalty Wednesday night as was meted out to Patrolman Welch in New York last week. Mollie was found by Lieut. Dalton on a Jefferson street car in a drunken stupor, in full uniform. He had been riding for three hours and insulting passengers. He was taken to headquarters and in the presence of his brother officers stripped of his badge and helmet and then was thrown into a cell.

LOOM-ENDS

Every factory and mill in the manufacture of their product accumulate Mill Ends or Loom Ends, as they are commonly called. They are short ends from the looms, ½ yard to 10 yards in length. These short ends are laid aside until the end of the weaving season; then they are tied up in great bundles and disposed of by weight—so much for a hundred pounds instead of so much a yard, the price always being less than the actual cost of the raw material they are made from. LOOM ENDS accumulate in all mills, therefore careful buyers by a persistent system of buying can secure loom ends of every conceivable kind and piece of goods that is made.

Peters, H. W. Sommers, T. L. Staples, C. R. Weatherhogg, Albert Bond, K. K. Wheelock, E. G. Hoffman and S. S. Fisher.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

A party which came to the city this morning in an auto from Cromwell, had a very narrow escape from serious injury as they were entering the city on the Goshen road. The party was composed of O. M. Shock, owner and driver of the car, John Flowers, LeGrand McMeans and W. B. McMeans, all of Cromwell. The steering gear stuck and became unmanageable and the machine made for a fence along the road. Mr. Shock, however, kept his head and succeeded in bringing the car nearly to a stop when it hit the fence. As it was they were able to proceed to the city and have slight repairs made at a garage.

W. W. Comstock, of Lafayette, was in the city a while today on his way home from Winona.

PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD NOW PROVING ITS USEFULNESS

New Type Cars Ordered for New York Subway—Hope to End Crushes.

New York, Aug. 9.—It is announced that one result of the investigation of the local railroads by the public service commission which is being conducted by William M. Ivins, as counsel, will be an order to the Interborough-Metropolitan company to change the type of car in the subway. Cars with the side doors, it is said, will be ordered and it is expected they will do away with the crush at stations now so much complained of. The innovation will cost a million dollars or more.

While much of the testimony brought out at the hearing is chiefly of local importance, there are occasionally some developments of more than passing interest. One of these is that in 40 per cent. of the cars run on the local roads there are strap hangers. Another interesting point brought out was the reading by Mr. Ivins of a portion of the incorporation act of the Manhattan Elevated Railroad company, which contained a provision that a seal should be provided for each passenger.

If a seat was not obtained a passenger could ride free of charge. The road was incorporated in 1875; probably so long ago that this interesting provision was forgotten.

Child's Pretty Sunbonnet

CHILD'S WASH BONNET FOR SUMMER DAYS

Sunbonnets are decidedly smart for children's use this season and are so serviceable in protecting the skin from tan and freckles when little ones are playing in the hot sun at seashore and mountain resorts that they have become popular alike with parents and youngsters, and there are few small girls without such headgear.

To the average child these bonnets of wash materials, ginghams, of lawn, etc., are becoming, and though they fit over the ears and around the neck, are not uncomfortably warm because of the thinness of the goods from which they are fashioned, and because of the looseness of the model on which they are made.

HAS BULLET IN BRAIN, BUT LIVES.

Man Who Attempted Suicide Now Glad to Be Alive.

Dublin, Ind., Aug. 8.—With one bullet imbedded in the base of his brain and another beneath his right eye, James Whitaker, who attempted suicide yesterday morning, still lives.

Not only does he live but he is glad to be alive, he says. He talks of going out to thank whomever. Physicians say it is a remarkable case, but they do not believe he will survive.

Whitaker is 55 years old. He lives on a small farm near this place with his cousin, Martin, and a daughter, who shot the man fired a single minute after he wounded himself. He told the neighbors that he shot himself because he was discouraged with life.

OPIE READ LAUDS INDIANA.

Says State is Cosmopolitan, Hence So Many Authors.

New Albany, Ind., Aug. 8.—Opie Read, the novelist, poet, and dramatist, who lectured at the chautauque assembled here Wednesday night to an audience of more than 5,000 people, paid a high compliment to the Indiana people while talking to a party of friends before he mounted the lecture platform. He gave a theory for the unusual number of books that originated in Indiana.

"In Indiana," said Mr. Read, "there are more individuals, more characters, that is, people who do not think just as others do, more people of ideas, hence more books are produced here than elsewhere."

"Indiana is the meeting point of the north and the south, where new ideas are interchanged and new theories developed. The people of the state are a bright people and there is a vast difference between an Indian audience and those that are met at other places."

DANDELION SALAD

For salad use the common dandelion blanched by growing through a depth of sandy soil or under eathren pots is preferred by many to the choicest cresses. Blanched in this way it is delightfully tender, crisp and white without the bitter taste. Successive crops of this may be grown throughout the summer if not allowed to blossom. The tender green leaves of young field dandelions picked before the plant blossoms are also used for salad. To prepare for serving, wash several times in cold water, drain well, put the leaves in a dish and cut fine. Sprinkle with salt, cover and stand in a cool place for several hours. Then drain again. Mix six table-spoonsful of oil with three of vinegar or lemon juice and a quarter teaspoonful of pepper. Pour over the leaves, toss well and serve.

SAYS THERE IS MURDER IN MANY OF "JAG" MEDICINES

New York State Health Official Attacks Proprietary Remedies.

Chautauque, N. Y., Aug. 9.—"There is no question that some of our canned goods are absolutely vile," said State Health Commissioner Eugene H. Porter in an address on "The Public Health Department and the Duty of the Citizen" at the Chautauque assembly yesterday. "I have even found some with worms in them."

Besides scoring the condition of some canned products, the commissioner roasted the patent medicines without stint, asserting that many of them are merely "jag medicines" of the worst sort, while the makers are virtually swindlers and murderers. Many of the tuberculosis scares, Dr. Porter insisted, are unnecessary, as there is no cause for alarm if sane treatment is given sufferers. Incidentally, the doctor, editor, commissioner rapped political manipulation of the health department, laying the blame for bad health conditions on the voters who allow such conditions to exist.

"Adulteration of food is no new thing," said Dr. Porter. "Nor is the present concerted movement for its suppression by any means the first. Ancient Greece and Rome had laws against the adulteration of bread and wine."

Aniline Dies Not Harmful.

"However, some of the pure food agitation was unnecessary. Experiment has demonstrated time and again that the aniline dyes used in coloring foods are not capable of injuring any one. Far be it from me to defend the use of formaldehyde in food, but not enough of it can be used to injure the public health. But about these substances considerable hue and cry was raised in public agitation, in spite of the fact that while they may offer deception they are not a menace to health. There is truth enough without stirring up unnecessary excitement."

"What the effect will be of the national pure food law which congress passed in response to the public demand will depend largely upon the sagacity with which it is enforced. Large powers have been delegated to practically one man in the matter of fixing standards and making regulations. Much power for good or evil has been placed in the hands of this commission. Reasonable and sensible regulations, enforced discreetly and with due regard to the spirit, if not the letter of the law, can produce results which the public had in mind when urging the necessity of legislation. The proof of the pudding is in the eating, and so also the adequacy of the food law will be demonstrated in its interpretation and wise enforcement."

Patent Medicine Frauds.

"For the purpose of criminal identification you can divide patent medicine men into two classes. The first class murder first and swindle afterwards; the second swindle first and murder afterwards. In many lines of his multifarious rascality the quack may save his conscience, if, indeed, he retain any vestige of that drawback to business, by hoping that, though he is of no help, at worst he is of no harm except to his victim's pocket. This meager solace he cannot claim in tuberculosis, however. Here quackery takes what is perhaps its most murderous profit."

"The consumptive who does not go forward goes back. The 'cures' containing opium, morphine, chloroform, alcohol, and other similar drugs are absolutely murderous. The sufferer is simply drugged, while all the time the disease tightens its grip on him, and the golden moments that might bring health are lost. Only those of the medical profession realize how quickly incipient tuberculosis becomes galloping consumption under the influence of these drugs."

"I know of a harmless enough patent medicine, consisting of 99 parts advertising and one part ordinary spring water, which is exploited to cure not only tuberculosis but also cancer, insanity, epilepsy, drunkenness, disorderly conduct, and pimples."

Poison in "Jag Medicines."

"But many other 'jag medicines,' as they are called, which make a profit from tuberculosis are absolutely dangerous. Let me read you some of the constituents of the five most widely advertised patent medicines: Chloroform and prussic acid; chloroform and canabis indica; morphine and chloroform; morphine and hydrocyanic acid; alcohol and cathartics."

"Among other less baneful swindles is one containing sulphuric acid, water, and superheated air; another, a famous alliterative pill, has ferrous sulphate, starch, and sugar. This latter has a range of usefulness from humpback to cold feet."

"But of these quacks there is no end, as the bulletins which can be had by writing the health department at Albany show. The astonishing thing is that so many of the American people are fooled by them."

"There is no need to be alarmed about the spread of tuberculosis. There is no danger whatever if the case is properly handled. The ostracism of consumptives, as Texas is planning, is absurd."

"If democratic government is to endure and to withstand a form of government in which plunder and bad government are the rule, the people must not neglect the vital duty of safeguarding the public health. The people must see to it that, in place of bosses and bootlickers and small politicians to manage these things, they have educated public servants who are faithful and able experts."

SPRAYING AND GRAFTING ARE EXPLAINED TO VISITORS

Indiana Horticulturists Get Valuable Information at Purdue.

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 9.—Two hours were devoted yesterday morning by the Indiana horticulturists in tramp-like through the experimental orchards and groves of the Purdue experimental station, and instructions were given under the leadership of Professor Troop in spraying and grafting.

At 10 o'clock the fruit growers convened in the agricultural hall. James T. Carver, of Greencastle, who had twenty acres of apple trees that produced 15,000 bushels last year, delivered a strong argument in favor of his method of spraying trees. He differs from many Indiana fruit growers and believes that trees should be low limbed and the spraying done from the bottom.

Samuel A. Hazleton, of Greencastle, spoke on "How I Market My Apples." Professor Troop then gave a talk on the insect pests.

Value of Pure Food Laws.

Dr. H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner, of Indianapolis, spoke of the value of the pure food laws to the horticulturists. Prof. J. C. Whittem, of the University of Missouri, finished the morning with a talk on "Commercial Orcharding." The committee on premium awards appointed by President Swain consisted of W. J. Green, of the Ohio experiment station; L. B. Custer, of Logansport, and J. J. Milhouse, of Valley Mills.

W. T. Blythe, of United States

weather bureau, Indianapolis, received a cordial greeting when he was introduced for a talk on "Frosts." He explained the various frost formations and the conditions favorable to their end. Continuing, he said: "It is plain that any action looking to the prevention of injury by frost to be successful, must be based on one or more of the following methods: First, diminishing the radiation of heat; second, raising the dew point to a higher degree than 32; third, adding heat to the air; fourth, draining that needs protection, and fifth, mixing the air so as to prevent the cold air from sinking and settling in the stratum nearest the earth."

To Protect the Crop.

For the protection of the staple crops of the interior states, the speaker recommended the use of smoke from smudge fires as the most successful method that can be extensively practiced with profit.

In conclusion, he said: "I would recommend that each orchardist, gardener or grower of any other product first get into the closest touch possible with the reports and forecasts of the weather bureau; second, supplement the information received from the weather bureau by the addition of his own knowledge, gained by experience and observation, of the effect in his locality of the conditions (particularly of temperature) existing and anticipated at the nearest weather bureau office; third, be prepared to start his smudge fires whenever the conditions indicate that protection will be needed, and finally, when during the night or early morning that frost is expected the temperature of the air in the orchard or garden at, say one to five feet above the ground, has fallen to within two to four degrees of the freezing point, that is, a temperature of 34 to 36 degrees, light the fires and see to it that every section of the arena needing protection is covered with smoke and fog and continues so until the sun is well up."

The speakers at the session Wednesday night were Prof. W. C. Latta, of Purdue university, on "Relation of Farmers' Institutes to the Horticultural Institutes of the State," and Prof. J. C. Whittem, of the University of Columbia, on "Technical Horticultural Education."

LOSES WIFE FOR SECOND TIME.

Lawyer Who Hired Ex-Spouse as Housekeeper Grieved by Elopement.

Bellefonte, Ill., Aug. 9.—After living with her divorced husband as his housekeeper for five years, Angelina Reichert eloped from Bellefonte Saturday with George A. Thomas, former county clerk of St. Clair county, to Dayton, Ohio, where they obtained a license to wed yesterday.

Angelina Reichert was formerly the wife of August Barche, a prominent Bellefonte attorney. After she had obtained a divorce in 1902 she made a proposition which Barche readily accepted, that he employ her instead of a strange housekeeper, who would have to learn his ways.

"I am awfully sorry," he said to her last week, when he heard she was to leave his home to get married, "because I don't know where I'll find anybody that can keep house like you can."

Attorney J. M. Haley left last evening for New York and other eastern points.

THUNDER TERRIFIES CITY.

Crashes Forth Amid Electrical Display, But There is No Rain.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Aug. 9.—This community was startled early yesterday morning by one of the most terrific claps of thunder ever heard here. It was followed by a vivid electric display. An odd feature of the phenomenon is that not a drop of rain fell, although in the east of here a few miles it rained in torrents. Two houses in this city were struck by lightning. Mrs. J. Hildon and her daughter both were shocked so that they were unconscious.

At the home of John Ryan his son, Oliver, 11 years old, narrowly escaped death as a large clock and a number of other articles on the mantel were dislodged when the house was struck. The child was covered by the debris.

STEEL TRUST WILL ADD $45,000,000 TO ITS GARY PLANT

New Indiana City to Be Developed on a Prodigious Scale.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Satisfied that Gary, Ind., will be the steel capital of the world, the directors of the United States Steel corporation have decided to invest an additional $45,000,000 in the construction of the model city and steel plant just across the Indiana state line from Chicago.

Information that the directorate of the steel corporation had set aside the amount for the purpose of developing Gary was received at the new city yesterday and caused a rapid advance in values and a buoyant sensation through the humming town.

The $45,000,000 is in addition to the original appropriation of $75,000,000, estimated as the necessary outlay for the building of the plant and for the formation of the city which will house the score of thousands of workers who will be employed at Gary when the final plans of the steel kings have been consummated.

To Extended Steel Plant.

The excess appropriation is to be used in widening the scope and extent of the steel plant proper. The cost of the building of Gary is included in the first estimate, which was made when it was proposed to transform a desert of drifting sand into the greatest steel manufacturing city of the continent.

Gary was much excited over the news. It is expected that much of the additional fund will be used in the purchase of machinery, but the increase means that additional labor will be necessary to build the greater plant and set up the machinery and that opportunity will be given for the employment of a much larger number of men in the works than at first was expected.

Three thousand men were at work yesterday building Gary and 300 or 400 men are being added daily. The work accomplished in the construction of the plant and the city since the first spadeful of sand was turned June 16, 1906, almost surpasses the comprehension of those who have followed it.

Broadway Almost Finished.

The record of the fourteen months shows that Broadway, the principal business street, has been constructed for a distance of three miles from the Grand Calumet to the Little Calumet river, paved with concrete for the greater part of the distance, lined its entire length with concrete sidewalks and bounded for two miles on each side with brick and concrete business blocks.

A complete sewage system has been constructed, covering all of the business district and the residence area of the city and is now in use. A waterworks system, which is constructed on the basis of a city of 500,000 inhabitants, is in service. The water now is supplied from eight artesian wells, which will suffice pending the completion of a tunnel two miles out into Lake Michigan, following the general plan of the Chicago water system.

Gas mains have been laid all over the city, and the plant will open operations Dec. 1. The electric lighting plant is now in commission, and the power is carried through a modern system of underground conduits, all of which have been completed.

Ready for the Officials.

In the residence districts more than fifty of the superior homes are rapidly nearing completion, and will be ready for occupancy within thirty days. The greater part are to be the residences of the steel trust corporation's officials.

Orders have been given to the field marshals on the ground that homes must be in readiness for 50,000 persons by the time the steel plant begins actual operations. The effect has been to force a demand for labor which might attract anyone but a steel magnate.

Nearly $1,000,000 will be spent in covering the sand of the residence lots with an excellent quality of Illinois black dirt. This work now is in progress, and 1,400 lots in the better districts will be so treated.

Business already has opened in the stores which line Broadway. More than 8,000 inhabitants now have their homes in Gary, and mercantile establishments were the first to be constructed. One department store is to occupy a three-story building 125 feet square, constructed of concrete, which is practically completed. The new five-story hotel is under roof, and the two elaborate bank buildings are nearing completion.

Theater to Cost $150,000.

Work on the construction of a $150,000 theater will be commenced at once. Will J. Davis, who is to control the theater, was in Gary yesterday and gave the information that the preliminaries had been completed for its construction.

The business firms which border Broadway now represent twenty-three states, and it is said that in walking one block on Broadway on pay night one can hear almost every language spoken.

The street car proposition is the serious entanglement which now confronts the town. The steel corporation has been balked in its desire to obtain the franchise for the car lines in its own town and fears serious delay in its completion.

Three-cent fares furnish the bone of contention and the present mayor of the town, Thomas E. Knotts, has arrayed himself against the steel company.

Three weeks ago when the granting of the franchise was before the town board the steel corporation, a syndicate of Lake county, Indiana, capitalists, headed by Frank Gavit, and representatives of the Chicago-New York Air Line, each applied for the concession.

Gavit Wins the Franchise.

The issue was between the corporation and the Gavit syndicate, and the propositions submitted were practically alike, save that the Gavit syndicate offered 3-cent fares after a period of three years. Gavit won the franchise.

The position of the steel company, as stated by W. A. Norton, representative of the corporation at Gary, is that they want the lines built, agreeing on their part to build the system in six months after the franchise becomes theirs. Mr. Norton said that the officials of the corporation feared that the Gavit franchise was secured for speculative purposes. Mayor Knotts and one of the trustees refused a referendum vote after a petition had been filed in accordance with the Indiana state law. The steel officials announce that mandamus proceedings will be started against the town officials, and in the hearing it is expected the question of the validity of the statute will be tested.

Mayor Busse, with a large party, visited Gary yesterday.

Patterson-Fletcher Co. began their wonderful sale today. Cost cuts no figure. They will not carry over merchandise. Everything must be new at the beginning of the season.

The automobilist peeled off $20 and handed it with a cigar to Drumm, and then rode away.

CHEAP LIGHTS FOR ALL; NEW BATTERY IS A MARVEL

Milwaukee Man Has Invention That Will Hit Oil Trust.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 9.—In the invention of an electric battery made by Frank Curtis, of Milwaukee, leading financial and railroad men of the country believe a successful rival to the Standard Oil company has been discovered. A company known as the Battery Light and Power company has been organized with a capital of $5,000,000 to exploit the invention.

Among the men interested in the corporation are Fred D. Underwood, president of the Erie Railroad company; F. C. Rice, superintendent of the Pullman Palace Car company; and A. W. Trenholm, general manager of the Omaha road. J. W. Wagner, of Milwaukee, is president and Frank C. Curtis secretary.

Battery is a Wonder.

Every house can be equipped and lighted with its own individual electric plant at a nominal cost. Automobiles may be fitted out with the battery and a supply of chemicals carried under the seat sufficient for thousands of miles.

The invention is in the discovery of new alloys to form electrodes, both negative and positive, and also in the combination of chemicals used in connection with the electrodes. The decomposition of the chemicals in solution furnish the electric current in as large a quantity as may be desired. The cost of the solution will not exceed 5 cents a cell.

What It Can Do.

A battery of fourteen cells, attached to a switchboard containing eighteen sixteen candle power lamps, maintained the light at full candle power for from fifty-six to seventy-eight hours. A runabout equipped with an eighteen cell battery ran 200 hours on the first charge of the solution. Manager Trenholm, of the Omaha road, used this same battery to equip his private car for the purpose of testing the invention for train lighting. Twenty-four lamps of twenty-four candle power were turned on and exhibited at St. Paul, Minn., for three days. The car then started on a trip to Omaha and return, the lights maintaining their full candle power for eight days.

PAYS GIRLS TO POSE AS EVE.

Man Tries to Turn Denver Park Into Garden of Eden.

Denver, Col., Aug. 8.—Five hundred people living near Jerome park yesterday chased William Anderson, aged 29, when it was learned he had been paying little girls to pose as water nymphs in the swimming pool at the park.

Men, women and boys joined in the pursuit of Anderson, who would have been roughly handled had he not taken refuge in a saloon, where he was rescued by Policeman Snyder.

The girls told their parents Anderson had given 50 cents to each to dance in the pool. The girls ranged from 10 to 15 years in age.

JAP STABS JAP FOR 15 CENTS.

Countrymen Are Supposed to Be Conquering Miscreant Through Fear.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 9.—T. Hirose, a Japanese, who runs a poolroom at 44 Richards street, where he was wounded in a cutting affair in his place of business. His opponent was I. Takahara, a "bad" Jap, all his people say. Takahara used a sharp weapon of some sort, probably a knife, upon Hirose with telling effect, inflicting two good-sized wounds, one six inches long, in the back, and another three inches long, in the head.

Hirose claims that Takahara, who was playing pool refused to pay for three games—15 cents—owed. Takahara, after abusing Hirose, struck him in the chest with his fists, then drew a sharp weapon of some sort and made for him. Takahara, Hirose claims, also beat him over the shoulders with a cue.

As usual, although six or eight Japanese witnessed the affair, none knows Takahara or could tell where he might be found. The police say that Takahara has a bad record and the other Japs fear him, hence their unsatisfactory information.

Have you never wished that some member of your family could play the piano?

Of course you would rather play yourself, because you know it must be much more interesting to produce music than merely listen to it. You wouldn't practice when a child, however, so you think you must be satisfied just to hear someone else play occasionally.

The Pianola Piano was invented just for you

Investigate this wonderful instrument that in less than five years has become the most popular piano in the world. You will then understand why so many other people are buying them.

You will realize that if you owned one there would always be someone in your home to play.

And you would recognize the astounding fact that that someone who could play so well, whose repertoire would be no great, might be you yourself.

You are not investigating the Pianola Piano when you hear and see any instrument not made by the Aeolian company. No other has either the Themodist or Metrostyle or other exclusive features which have made the Pianola Piano such a wonderful success.

STRIKE OF WIRE MEN SPREADING OVER COUNTRY.

fall, they say, the strike will be continued.

Has Been Little Doing.

Since last night when 200 operators struck rather than work with strike-breakers at Los Angeles, there has been little doing in the Chicago office of the Western Union Telegraph company at Jackson boulevard and Clark streets or in the branch offices scattered throughout the city.

Only six wire chiefs and fourteen veteran telegraph operators were left in the main Chicago office when the union men, in answer to a whistle, rushed from the keys on the ninth and tenth floors and congregated in front of the building.

The strike order issued by the executive board of the Chicago local union to the night operators applies at day operators, thus affecting some 700 men employed in the main office during the day hours.

Brokers' Men at Work.

No trouble was experienced today by the brokers and commission houses in handling their business. None of their operators had been called and all of them reported today as usual. At 8 o'clock in the morning about twenty operators were at work in the rooms of the Western Union and the officials of the company declared that they expected many more throughout the day.

Wesley Russell, the secretary of the local union, declared that the company would not be able to man its wires or handle its business.

There were no signs of disorder around the Western Union building today, but Chief of Police Shippy detailed fifty officers to see that no crowds congregated around the building or around the board of trade. Early in the day many operators were gathered in the Western Union offices, but they were ordered to keep moving by the officers and there was no trouble of any kind.

Antics of Insane Man.

An insane man rushed into the central police station early in the day and inquired in an excited manner for President Roosevelt, saying that he wanted him to end the telegraphers' strike at once. He was arrested.

The Western Union tickers were almost entirely out of business early in the day and the men in charge of this department declared that they had no idea when conditions would improve. This caused much inconvenience to brokers who were compelled to get their stock quotations over the telegraph wire, which caused them considerable delay.

READY TO QUIT AT SALT LAKE.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 9.—A meeting of the Salt Lake local of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America will be held at 2 p. m. today to decide whether or not the men in the local offices of the Western Union Telegraph company shall go out in sympathy with Los Angeles.

When the regular day man who sends on the Chicago wire was asked to take charge of his wire today, he refused, saying that the Chicago office was unfair and that he would not work with that office. He was promptly discharged. The other men did not leave their keys, but sent at once for A. F. Palm, president of the Salt Lake local, who will determine what action shall be taken.

After meeting with President Palm, a committee of operators waited on Manager Long, of the local Western Union office, and told him that unless

ALL OUT AT BUTTE.

Helena, Mont., Aug. 9.—The entire force of the local Western Union went on a strike today with the exception of the chief operator and his assistant. The strike was due to marking off an operator who declined to man the Chicago wire. Electrician McKisick, of the Chicago office, called for a receiver and one of the regular men was directed to the wire, which position he refused to accept on the ground that Chicago was a non-union office. Before the chief operator could request any one else to man the wire, the entire force, numbering about forty men, joined the discharged operator as he left the room, and all wires were soon idle.

LOOKED UPON AS LOCAL.

New York, Aug. 9.—The strike of the telegraph operators in Chicago today is regarded by the company as local in its nature and not likely to precipitate a strike here. The walkout of the telegraphers in Chicago has hampered the transmission of business both here and Chicago, but wire chiefs and chief operators are doing all they can to move the business. President Crowley and General Superintendent Brooks held a conference today to discuss the situation. Mr. Brooks said:

"There is no reason why the strike in Chicago should bring about a strike in New York. The trouble in Chicago is local in its nature and should not affect this city. Only 50 per cent. of the operators in the eastern division belong to the union and in the event of a possible strike we would be able to handle the business without delay. The company is paying the telegraphers the 10 per cent. increase in wages agreed to in the settlement recently and there is no reason for a strike."

It was said at the local headquarters of the telegraphers' union today that a strike of operators here, because of the trouble in Chicago, was very unlikely.

Western business on the local stock exchange was affected by the Chicago telegraph strike and all early grain quotations and reports from Chicago were delayed. The strike did not seriously interfere with business on the stock exchange, though commission houses with Chicago wires, said that they had been notified in Chicago by the telegraphers union that nothing except quotations and orders should be sent over the private lines.

KANSAS CITY MEN OUT.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 9.—The entire force of the Western Union here, excepting chief operators, numbering about 150 employees, went out shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon. The Western Union operators at the board of trade also went out.

One woman, a regular operator at the main office, remained loyal and continued at work with the chiefs, who, as soon as the strike was on, began to work the most important wires.

Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon the Postal operators were working and there were no indications that the men in that office would go out.

Los Angeles, Cal., August 9.—Samuel J. Small, president of the Commercial Telegraphers union, is expected here to assume charge of the Los Angeles situation. Assistant Superintendent Miller, of the coast division of the Western Union, was

ARE READY TO STRIKE.

Denver, Aug. 9.—The Western Union operators in this city are ready to go on a strike as soon as they are asked to use the wire to Chicago or Los Angeles. It is said that 70 out of the 75 day operators will walk out in case of a strike.

A PIONEER FARMER OF ALLEN COUNTY IS NO MORE

John M. Beck Dies at His Home Near Poe at Age of 69 Years.

John M. Beck, sr., aged 69 years, one of the oldest pioneer farmers in this section of the country, died this morning at 7:30 o'clock on his farm, which lies on the Wells county line near Poe, Ind. He was taken sick about three weeks ago with heart trouble, but death was due to apoplexy.

Mr. Beck was born in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, and was brought to this state by his father when he was two and a half years old. They settled on the farm in Wells county upon which he lived all his life. When he was 41 years old he married Miss May Miller, of Poe, and to this union six children were born, all of whom are now living. They are William M. and Ira D. Beck, who live near the old home place; Charles M. Beck, of this city; Mrs. F. W. Tracy, of Mishawaka; Mrs. M. R. Spencer, of Ossian, and Mrs. I. C. Hamilton, of Chicago.

Mr. Beck was a farmer and was a lifelong believer in the prohibition party, being one of its founders.

The funeral will be held next Sunday morning from the farm home and interment will be at Poe.

LIGHT ON THE COMING EVENTS AT WINONA ASSEMBLY

Things to Interest Those Planning to Go—Bowser Excursion Today.

Winona Lake, Ind., Aug. 9.—This is an important time for those who are planning to take advantage of the remaining days at the Winona Lake assembly, as well as those who are on the grounds and have had the enjoyment of the many good things past. Tomorrow, Saturday, will occur the circus at the Boys' City, which will be made up of the "star performers" who have been on drill for several days for this special occasion. The parade of the aggregation will occur at the 10 o'clock hour on the assembly grounds. This will likely be accompanied by the Black Horse Troopers from the Culver Military academy.

The evening brings to the Winona platform that unexcelled mystery of among mysteries, Carter and magi and for those who are at the assembly for the Sabbath and remain over for Monday, will be the opportunity of hearing the distinguished Brooklyn divine, Dr. Dwight Hillis, who preaches Sunday morning and lectures in the evening on Monday.

The Bowser excursion came in this morning and brought a large crowd of most excellent people, who are enjoying the day in a program of their own planning in athletics and field and water sports. There are few men engaged in the manufacturing business who take greater pleasure in these helpful outing days for the working-men and their families than does Mr. Bowser and his associates in the company which has this matter in charge. The afternoon will be spent in a visit to the Boy City and the games on the athletic field.

Today begins the Fourth International District Sunday School workers' Training school, which will continue for one week. A strong faculty has been secured for this work, that will help in the development of all the plans of Sunday school work.

Rev. J. S. Martin, of New Castle, Pa., is here perfecting the plans for the Christian citizenship meetings, which open on Monday. This association stands for active Christian ethics along Bible principles in civil government. It will bring to the workers' platform Rev. S. V. Scovill, D. D., president and secretary of the association, Rev. R. C. Wylie, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Dr. W. L. Wishart, of Allegheny, Pa., with other speakers of national reputation. This will prove one of the most helpful and impressive gatherings along reform lines ever held at Winona lake. It will be made a conference which will combine for civic righteousness, both in the way of conference and institute.

The preparation for Venetian night at Winona is going forward and as the date has been fixed for Wednesday night of next week, August 14, all efforts are now bending to make this one of the noted evenings of the session. It will be made the one gala evening for the park population in the entertainment of the visitors who come here for the season. The decoration of boats and plans for the water parade and illumination is taking the time of many faithful Winonians.

ALLEN COUNTY PORTION OF EWING PROPERTY DISPOSED OF Deeds Submitted for Approval of Judge Heaton—The Courts.

Deeds were presented to Judge O. N. Heaton in the superior court this afternoon by Judge Samuel R. Alden and Herman Michael which represent the final property sales in the Ewing estate and the total proceeds amount to $112,175. The commissioners presented a report showing the transactions in detail and it is likely they will be discharged from further service in the case.

There remain to be sold thirty-eight unimproved lots in Huntington and five acres of ground that lie within the corporate limits of Plymouth. The estate was one of the largest in Fort Wayne and the property remained intact until the death about a year ago of Mrs. Halliday in Chicago.

Deeds were made today to William Ehle, R. L. Romy Investment company and C. C. Schlatter. The old office building on West Main street purchased yesterday at public sale by W. D. Miller will probably be sold to Jesse Hamlet, who offered $3,500—an advance of $150 over Miller's bid.

Ditch is Established.

The county commissioners had a number of ditches under consideration at the regular session today and established the Gulf ditch in Milan township. County Surveyor David F. Spindler was appointed engineer on the work.

Divides His Property.

The will of George Miller has been probated and under its conditions his widow is given the use of all the property during her life, which is to be divided equally among their children at her death.

morning session that he believes the interests will get together without trouble.

The board of public works wants an estimate as soon as possible because the tax levy to be made in October must provide for the expense of track elevation. The new law provides for a levy of 10 cents on each $100 of valuation in excess of the maximum levy of $1.25 for general purposes. The mayor interprets this as meaning that as much as 35 cents can be levied for elevation provided the dollar levy will pay the other city expenses. A levy of 10 cents would realize about $27,000.

The special council committee on track elevation was invited to attend the conference this afternoon, which was continued after the cars had been measured.

RATES REASONABLE RESULTS CERTAIN

FREE TO AUTHORS.

New Form of Phrases for the Use of Story Writers.

According to an exchange, Mr. Clemens deplores the too frequent use by story writers of such stock phrases as "replied Alfred, flipping the ash from his cigar," "responded Richard, with a laugh," "unmurmured Gladys, blushing."

We have done a good deal of deploring ourselves along the same line of thought, plus other inefficiencies of the English language, and at last it got so deplorable we sat up all one night trying to evolve some new forms and have been eminently successful. We give them for what they are worth and hope to see the great army of American authors swing in line and help themselves till this batch is worn threadbare, when, we trust, some other phrase monger will come to the front with a mess of new ones. No copyright on the following:

"Said Philip as he paused to polish his eyeglasses on the lace curtains."

"Said Samuel, slowly writing his name on his cuff."

"Said the burglar, pausing to build a fire in the kitchen range for the housemaid ere he climbed out of the pantry window, for morning was breaking in the east."

"Said Robert to the beautiful girl, peeling an onion he had taken from his pocket, as he paused for her reply."

"Said Mrs. Riley, unfolding her arms akimbo and holding them straight up in the air like a railroad signal."

"He responded, opening a can of sardines with his teeth as he awaited her answer."

"Said he, taking out his magnificent gold watch and with it hammering back a loose nail which protruded from the sofa on which they sat."

"Said the cop, taking a bushel of peanuts from his overcoat pocket and presenting them to Tony Confetti, the fruit stand man."

"Said the florist as he threw in a dozen of cut roses and some choice rhododendrons with the three pinkies the young man was buying."

"Said the grocer as he tested the scales to see that they were absolutely correct."

"Twiddled she, playfully prying up a cobblestone from the pavement with the dairy roe of her No. 2 shoe."

"Said he, savagely biting the center out of a doughnut and swallowing it, seeds and all."

"Said he as he suddenly tore the pass into bits and, throwing a dollar before the astonished ticket seller, vowed he would pay his own fare."

"Said she, with a tremulous sob like that of a dying oyster."

No doubt there are many more such desirable forms which if we had time we might think up. But why not give some other fellow a chance? — Jack Robinson in Puck.

"Well, Henry," said the New York man who was visiting his Chicago cousin, "before I leave town I want to be sure to visit the stockyards, the art institute and the Field museum. I suppose it's an old story to you, so if you'll direct me right I'll find 'em myself."

The Chicago man laughed.

"I'm ashamed to admit it," he said, "but the fact is I've lived in this town fifteen years and I've never been out to the stockyards. I never visited the Field museum, and I've never been to the art institute, although I pass it every day of my life. I guess I'll take a day off and see the sights of my own town."

He did, and was as much interested as his cousin.

"Now, when I go to New York in the fall," he said, "I want you to take me out to Ellis Island to see the immigrants and to get the view from the statue of Liberty and walk down the Bowery."

"Sure," said the New York cousin, "I'd like to see those things once myself."—Chicago Record-Herald.

"Indeed?" queried the Scot. "That's a vera fine thing now. But will he be able to keep both jobs?"—Harper's Weekly.

Asparagus Rarebit—Lightly toast and butter thin rounds of whole wheat or plain bread, brush each with a layer of cooked asparagus cut in small pieces; sprinkle with salt, cayenne, a dash of Worcestershire sauce and a thick coating of American cheese. Cook in a hot oven long enough to melt the cheese, but not brown it. Serve immediately on individual plates, with a poached egg arranged on the top of each rarebit.

Pressed Cold Lamb—Take the remains of a cold roast lamb and place in a kettle with a few sprigs of parsley, half a teaspoonful of celery salt, a dash of paprika, one sprig of mint, one onion, and a little butter. Heat thoroughly and simmer until thoroughly heated through; then drain out the parsley and onion and put the meat in a hot oven to brown in butter. Serve with a poached egg arranged on the top of each rarebit.

Lemon Float—Cut four lemons in half, discard the pulp, scoop out the pulp of two and squeeze the juice of the other two. In the juice add one heaping cupful of sugar, a scant half cupful of water and bring quickly to a boil. Stir in three quart tablespoonfuls of cornstarch mixed with one-third of a cupful of cold water. Cook until thick and clear, and add a little cold water to cool. Cook very slowly for half an hour. Add the lemon pulp and one orange peeled and sliced. Serve very cold with cream and sugar.

Recipes for excellent vinegars: Tomato Vinegar—Strain the juice from a quart of ripe tomatoes into a jar with one cupful of sugar. Set in the sun for a couple of weeks, then strain and bottle for use.

Corn Vinegar—This is one of the very best vinegars. Place a teaspoonful of shell-corn in a jar with a teaspoonful of sugar, a cupful of water, and all up with water. It takes three weeks to acquire its full strength and is ready for use.

Spiced Vinegar—This gives a fine flavor to green vegetables, such as cucumbers, cabbage, cauliflower, beans, asparagus, etc. Slice a small onion, a two-inch rod of horseradish, half an ounce of tarragon, and a few sprigs of dill, and put in a stone jar and immerse in the vinegar for five hours. Then strain and bottle for use.

In making up half gallon jars, as these lemons may be exposed to the light and air, by shaking often the souring is hastened. Put the cornstarch over top to exclude dust and insects. If cold water is not at hand use boiled water which has been in the sun a few hours. When putting up peaches fill a jar half full of water and add a few drops of lemon juice. Apple peelings may be used the same way.

Stir in three quart tablespoonfuls of cornstarch mixed with one-third of a cupful of cold water. Cook until thick and clear, and add a little cold water to cool. Cook very slowly for half an hour. Add the lemon pulp and one orange peeled and sliced. Serve very cold with cream and sugar.

Recipes for excellent vinegars: Tomato Vinegar—Strain the juice from a quart of ripe tomatoes into a jar with one cupful of sugar. Set in the sun for a couple of weeks, then strain and bottle for use.

Corn Vinegar—This is one of the very best vinegars. Place a teaspoonful of shell-corn in a jar with a teaspoonful of sugar, a cupful of water, and all up with water. It takes three weeks to acquire its full strength and is ready for use.

Spiced Vinegar—This gives a fine flavor to green vegetables, such as cucumbers, cabbage, cauliflower, beans, asparagus, etc. Slice a small onion, a two-inch rod of horseradish, half an ounce of tarragon, and a few sprigs of dill, and put in a stone jar and immerse in the vinegar for five hours. Then strain and bottle for use.

In making up half gallon jars, as these lemons may be exposed to the light and air, by shaking often the souring is hastened. Put the cornstarch over top to exclude dust and insects. If cold water is not at hand use boiled water which has been in the sun a few hours. When putting up peaches fill a jar half full of water and add a few drops of lemon juice. Apple peelings may be used the same way.

MR AND MRS GARDEN GREEN

SUICIDE LEAVES FAMILY RICH.

Pittsburg Politician's Insurance Policies Amount to $95,000.

Pittsburg, Aug. 9.—George W. Delamater, who committed suicide here Wednesday, carried $95,000 in insurance. In every policy there was a suicide clause, but he had carefully overlooked that clause in each. It is understood premiums on some of the policies were almost due, and it is believed Mr. Delamater killed himself at the time the greatest possible financial return would come to his family.

Mr. Delamater's insurance policies were evidently examined carefully and were left in incontestable shape. He had the name of the beneficiary of one of his $25,000 policies changed on June 2 from his daughter to his wife. Among the policies were these: Prudential, $63,000; New York Life, $25,000; Bankers of Des Moines, $4,000; Massachusetts Mutual, $3,000.

FIND BANKERS' BONDS FAULTY.

Oversight Likely to Prove Costly to Brownstown Depositors.

Indianapolis, Aug. 9.—There are on file in the office of the secretary of state two bonds for $50,000 each that are said by the officials not to be worth the paper they are written on. One was given by Hugh A. Burrell, president of the People's State bank of Brownstown, and the other by Elias D. Brown, cashier of the same institution. No attention was paid to the bonds when the bank was examined and the result is that the money is probably lost. Bank Examiner Camp has discovered $43,000 worth of forged paper and $20,000 worth of "dummy" notes in the bank. President Burrell is still missing.

URNS FROM FAITH TO DOCTOR

Leading Christian Scientist in Boston Found Ill at Home.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 9.—Search for Joseph Armstrong, who is wanted to testify in connection with taking of depositions in the litigation against Mrs. Eddy, ended in the discovery that Armstrong is ill at his residence, 337 Commonwealth avenue, and, contrary to the fundamental principles of the faith, has been for six weeks under treatment of medical doctors for an attack of pleurisy. Armstrong was manager of the Christian Science Journal and publisher of all the Christian Science literature. He has been absent from his duties for weeks and it will be some time before he returns to them.

FAIR NEARLY READY.

Exposition Opened in April Will Be Completed in Ten Days.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 9.—The Jamestown exposition, which was opened last April, was yesterday declared to be practically complete by Director General James M. Barr, who also asks for the project the support of the country at large. Mr. Barr says: "The Jamestown tercentennial exposition, barring minor details which will be finished within ten days, is completed. It fittingly commemorates the great historical event which it was designed to celebrate, and it reflects credit on the state of Virginia, the south and the nation."

SEWS UP HEART; MAN LIVES.

Louisville Physician Performs Delicate Operation.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 9.—The local medical fraternity is watching with much interest the outcome of a peculiar and delicate operation performed on William Carlisle at the City hospital yesterday. Carlisle entered the institution Wednesday night with several severe knife wounds, one of which had laid the heart open for nearly an inch. This wound was dressed and sewed up by Dr. Lee Kahn. The patient gives signs of steady improvement.

LIVE WIRE DISROBES A WOMAN.

Atlanta, Ga., Shopper Left Almost Naked in Busy Street.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 9.—Alleging that she was completely disrobed by a live wire, Mrs. Maude S. Orr has sued the Georgia Railway and Electric company for $10,000 damages. Mrs. Orr was shopping on Whitehall street when the broken end of a guy wire, which had been charged in some way, touched her belt. The shock tore off the belt and most of Mrs. Orr's clothing. In addition to this humiliation, Mrs. Orr alleges that the shock caused her serious physical injury.

SUES ON SLAYER'S LIFE POLICY.

Widow of Executed Man Seeks to Recover $3,000 Insurance.

Cincinnati, Aug. 9.—Mrs. Anna Haugh, widow of Oliver C. Haugh, the triple murderer of Dayton, Ohio, who was executed in the penitentiary at Columbus some months ago, yesterday in the latter city brought suit against the Union Central Life Insurance company, of Cincinnati, for the recovery of $3,000, the amount of a policy held by her on the life of her husband. She claims that the company accepted premiums from her while her husband was in the annex at the penitentiary under sentence of death and after he had been refused clemency by the governor and pardon board, but that payment was refused after he had been executed. The late Governor Patterson was president of the Union Mutual Life Insurance company.

HOW IS THIS?

The cheapest suit made by Hart, Schaffner & Marx costs the merchant $13.00 at wholesale. Patterson-Fletcher Co. will sell Hart, Schaffner & Marx suits as low as $7.50 in the great sale that began today.

Hugh Smaltz was in Findlay, Ohio, yesterday on business.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF CURRENT AFFAIRS IN GARRETT

What the People of Busy Little Railroad City are Doing Today.

(Special Correspondence of The Sentinel.)
Garrett, Aug. 9.—The ladies' aid society of the M. E. church, held a social reception at the home of Mrs. D. Oboe, on South Randolph street, yesterday afternoon from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. The house was decorated with geraniums, sweetpeas and nasturtiums. The music was furnished by the Misses Mary Baker and Josephine Wessen. It was a grand success in every particular. Everybody present enjoyed themselves. There were 108 present and the proceeds were $7.00.

A. Crantz, age 21, a well known and popular young man from Defiance, O., and a cousin, aged 22, were drowned in the Defiance river Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Crantz had entered the boat races that was one of the attractions at the Spanish-American reunion which was being held in Defiance that afternoon, and had just won the event which preceded the accident. Mr. Crantz was well known in Garrett and had many friends who with his parents are left to mourn his loss.

Marshall Schudel was called to the Arlington hotel yesterday afternoon to arrest a woman whose presence was undesired. He ordered her to leave which she executed very promptly.

According to the local B. & O. officials who have been petitioned from time to time to put on the "milk train" between Waukegan and Garrett, the request will not be granted on account of the low fare as the petition was numerously signed named.

Mrs. Halter, the wife of Druggist Halter, entertained a party of Auburn and Garrett Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock. The time was spent in games, guessing contests and social pleasures. Mrs. Halter was assisted by Mrs. C. H. Martin and Miss Gladys Halter in serving refreshments. The Auburn ladies came over on the interurban.

Following are real estate transfers for Garrett and Keyser township: Rebecca Bevard to Frank Cusack, one lot in Crown addition, for $1,250; P. P. Wheeler to W. H. Coffey, two lots, old plat, $1,800; Emma and Franklin Ames to Samuel Bevard, one lot, old plat, $1,300; P. W. Stearns to Miranda M. Walter, 15 acres in section 11, $400.

Traffic on Toledo and Chicago division line was delayed for a few hours yesterday afternoon owing to the gravel train getting off the track at Havertrain.

The E. L. social held on Mrs. C. B. Jones' lawn Wednesday evening, was a success in every particular. The Toledo and Chicago Traction company ran a special car to Auburn last evening for those who wished to attend the band concert. The Auburn band has a great reputation over the state, being known in military circles as the Second Regiment band.

St. Perkins and his theatrical troupe, Manager Wagner says, will be at the opera house on the evening of August 20th.

N. H. Mills, of Toledo, O., has taken the position made vacant by A. E. North, in the Western Hoop company factory.

Daniel Woodward, of the B. & O. shops, had one of his fingers badly mashed while at work in the blacksmith shop and is under Dr. Thompson's care, the road engineer.

The illness of Worth Tuttle, the bandmaster, was the reason no band concert was held in Garrett Wednesday night.

Lloyd Houser, of the B. & O. shops, was returned to work after being off several months on account of an injury to his eye.

George Odom has been promoted to assistant foreman in the erecting department of the B. & O. shops.

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 9.—The wheat market today opened weak, chiefly because of lower cables, and the strike of the tri-continental commission houses the leading buyers. September opened a shade lower at 84 1/2c, and the market was quiet. The close was strong with September 84 1/2c and October 84 1/2c.

MARK HANNA MEMORIAL.

Monument is to be Built of Famous Quincy Granite.

Quincy, Mass., Aug. 9.—The memorial which the people of Cleveland, Ohio, are erecting to the late Mark Hanna is to be built of the celebrated Quincy granite, the contract having been awarded here. The design provides for a flight of steps several feet high, the lower forming a fifteen-foot square. From this the others will rise in a gradual ascent. The base resting on the plateau formed by the steps will be seven feet five inches on six feet, four and a half inches. On this the monument will rest. Above the whole will be a bronze statue of Mr. Hanna.

Why the Gans-Burns Match Was Pushed off the Boards.

WILL BUILD THEIR OWN LINE.

Farmers Dissatisfied With Telephone Rates—Will Suit Themselves.

Kokomo, Ind., Aug. 9.—As the result of the boycott over the 5-cent charge for city parties talking over the lines to rural patrons, the farmers of western Indiana who have been stirred to revolt against the charge are perfecting an organization to promote the establishment of a co-operative system among the residents of that locality with a view of dispensing with the service of the telephone company.

Day's Happenings in the Industrial World

THE BOWSER EXCURSION.

Over 1,500 Happy, Good-Natured People in the Party.

A fair estimate of the number of people taken to Winona by S. F. Bowser & Co. this morning puts the figure at 1,500. Twelve hundred and fifty tickets were exchanged at the ticket window of the Pennsylvania and in the party were a number of children not old enough to require a bit of pasteboard to carry them on a train. The Packard City band accompanied the excursionists, going down to the resort on the first train, and all of the ballplayers were on that train also in order that they could be on the grounds to begin the contest at an early hour. There were two games, the first being between the Bowser Grays and the Shields nine, which were lifted up as follows:

Bowser's—Hullinger, 2nd; Tucker, 1st; Traeder, c.f.; Lauer, 3rd; W. Streander, 1st; Bechtel, s.s.; Casey, c.f.; Brown, c.; May and Mattoon, pitchers.

Shields—Lynch, 1st; Rabus, 2nd; Soliday, c.f.; Birtaway, r.f.; Ehrman, 3rd; Borman, 1st; Wiedeman, c.; Lentz, s.s.; Frosh, p.

The other game was between the office men and the line-up was practically as published in The Sentinel yesterday. This afternoon the following program of athletic sports is being pulled off:

Fifty-yard dash for boys under 15 years.

One-hundred-yard dash for men.

Three-legged race for men.

Potato race for boys.

Fat men's race (25) yards.

One-half mile boat race for men.

One-half mile boat race for women.

The two trains had a baggage car and twelve coaches each and all of the cars were well filled. The first train was manned by Conductor Zurbach, brakemen Moylan and Hammond, Engineer H. L. Foster and Fireman C. C. Niles and the second train by Conductor Rafter, brakemen Rhodenbaugh and Hart, Engineer Tim McCarty and Fireman C. L. Jourdan.

MORE STRIKERS REPORT.

Seven more of the moulders who went on strike at the Bass foundry three months ago reported for work at the foundry this morning and were given their old places wherever it was possible to do it. These brought the number of reinstatements since the strike was declared off, last Wednesday, up to twenty-four. About thirty had previously been reinstated, making fifty-four, or a little over one-third of the original strikers, who are again at work at that shop. So far General Superintendent Harry Fisher has been able to give every man who applied for work a position.

HAS MOVED TO CRESTLINE.

George W. Tibberty, who was recently transferred from passenger brakeman to baggage-man on the Pennsylvania, has moved his family to Crestline, which city will be his headquarters while on the road in his present capacity. He has a run between Crestline and Chicago.

OLD EMPLOYEE HURT.

Peter Kling Struck on Head by Big Piece of Iron.

Peter Kling, of the Bass foundry, came about as near being killed this morning as it is possible for man and escape with his life. Mr. Kling is employed at the big iron crusher north of the car wheel room and when the heavy plunger came down on a car wheel that was to be broken, the hub of the wheel flew out, struck one of the supports of the cupola and glanced off and hit Mr. Kling. He received two painful scalp wounds and his shoulders were bruised, but none of the injuries are of a serious character. The piece which struck Mr. Kling weighed seventy pounds and it had velocity sufficient to leave the imprint of some letters on the wheel on the wooden post it struck before hitting Mr. Kling. The injured man has been employed at the Bass shops twenty-five years. Dr. A. J. Kesler attended him.

MACEDONIAN LOST FINGER.

One of the Macedonian laborers at the Bass foundry, James Risto, had the index finger of this right hand crushed off at the first joint this morning by getting his leg between two car wheels. He was attended by Dr. A. J. Kesler and then sent to his home. The injured man is a car wheel cleaner at the foundry.

HANDLED 816 EXCURSIONISTS.

Col. R. G. Thompson, of the Wabash, has returned home, after accompanying the excursionists to Niagara Falls. Colonel Thompson says the trip was made without accident or unpleasant incident and was in every respect of the worst a complete success. The four trains took 816 people into Niagara. Next Wednesday the company will have another Niagara Falls excursion which will start from Springfield and Litchfield, on the Middle Division, but will not take on passengers at Fort Wayne nor points east of this city.

CHARLEY CROSS AT SHOPS.

Charles W. Cross paid the men at the Pennsylvania machine shop a visit this morning and discussed with them the long ago when Mr. Cross was their shopmate. He entered the Pennsylvania shops twenty-six years ago, immediately after completing his apprenticeship in the Lima Locomotive works, and worked there until about ten years ago, when he was called to Elkhart in the capacity of master mechanic of the Lake Shore shops. Mr. Cross is now superintendent of apprentices for the entire system of the New York Central. He is now enjoying a vacation.

ATHLETIC BOARD MEETING.

This evening the executive board of the Pennsylvania Company Employees' Athletic association will hold a meeting to further the interest of the coming field day two weeks from tomorrow. It was decided today that the association has decided to confine entries for the various events to the membership of the association, which practically includes all the employees in the mechanical and motive power departments of the Pennsylvania.

BLACKSMITH INJURED.

Representatives of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, including brakemen, yardmen, switchmen and telegraphers, are said to be in secret session at Cambridge Springs discussing plans for a readjustment of the wage scale. There are about 41,000 workmen on various eastern lines represented at the sessions, to which the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers sent no representative, having no demands to make.

Agent Harry Pininger, of the Lake Shore, who worked up a good crowd for the Niagara Falls excursion over the L. E. & W., is now engaged in a similar work for the Lake Shore. The latter company in former years paid but little attention to Niagara Falls business out of Fort Wayne territory, but it has decided to go for the business to the best of its ability hereafter and as an inducement to excursionists is advertising a number of side trips in connection with the regular excursion to the Falls this year. Agent Pininger is getting numerous inquiries concerning the coming excursion and is thus led to the belief that many people from this city will join the party. The train will leave the city at 5 o'clock Thursday, Aug. 15, and will make close connection on the main line with a train of which it will be a part on the balance of the journey.

The Pennsylvania Atlantic City excursion business yesterday was rather better than the company expected, it being heavy enough to require several extra trains. There were forty tickets sold at the Fort Wayne office, and the two Pullman cars reserved for this place were fairly well filled.

CITY BREVITIES.

Word was received yesterday by Mrs. Henry Ranke, wife of Dr. Henry Ranke, of this city, that her father, Otto Bauer, of Berlin, Germany, died last week and was buried in the family lot there. Besides Mrs. Ranke, the deceased leaves two sisters and two brothers, all of Berlin.

Joseph O'Connell is home again visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connell, of East Creighton avenue. Mr. O'Connell has just been honorably discharged from his four years of service in the U. S. marine corps, during which time he has been all over the world and for the past two years has been stationed at Alaska. He will probably decide to remain here permanently and start into the plumbing business with his brother, Hugh.

Use our easy-cutting, easy-running Domestic Lawn Mowers. A lawn mower to be perfectly satisfactory must be made of first-class material, the knives of the proper kind of steel, carefully ground and tempered, and must be easily adjusted and not likely to get out of order. It must do the work properly, leaving the lawn smooth and without waves, and not choke down in heavy grass. It must be easily operated, perfectly noiseless and reasonable in price.
